

Prayer Pages

How to Use Them:

Use the names of God to organize your prayer requests. It's easy to tell someone that you will pray for them with the best of intentions and then forget to follow through. You don't mean to, it's just easy to forget with the busyness of life. This system can help you keep track of your prayer requests in a more organized way.

You can print these out and either post them on a prayer wall, or put them in a binder. You can write directly on them, or I like to use post-it notes. When they are answered, I record them in a journal that is dedicated solely for answers to prayer. You can print out more of these to use solely for that purpose or buy a journal for your answered prayers.

I break down my prayer requests in the following way:

Jehovah Sabaoth - BIG problems where you need the might and power of God to prevail. I include things like natural disasters, government leadership, and things I'm overwhelmed by.

Jehovah Shalom - People who need peace, or those who have lost a loved one and need comfort.

Jehovah Rohi - Those who need the special care and love of Jesus.

Jehovah Mekoddishkem - People who need God to work in their lives to make them more like Him (don't we all?) or to draw them to God.

Jehovah Rapha - Those who need God's healing.

Jehovah Jireh - People and situations that need God to provide for their needs.

I pray using one of these names of God each day and claiming the promise written below it. I take a break on the Sabbath. I hope this helps you be more consistent in praying for your friends and family. And if God puts someone on your heart, pray for them even if they're written down on a different day's prayer list!

Jehovah Sabaoth

The Lord of Hosts

Don't be afraid, for I am with you.
Don't be discouraged, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you.
I will hold you up with my victorious right hand.
Isaiah 41:10

Jehovah Shalom

The Lord is Peace

Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand.
His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.
Philippians 4:7

Jehovah Rohi

The Lord is My Shepherd

He will feed his flock like a shepherd.

He will carry the lambs in his arms,
holding them close to his heart.

He will gently lead the mother sheep with their young.

Isaiah 40:11

Jehovah Mekoddishkem

The Lord Who Sanctifies You

Now may the God of peace make you holy in every way, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again.

1 Thessalonians 5:23

Jehovah Rapha

The Lord Who Heals You

O Lord, if you heal me, I will be truly healed;
If you save me, I will be truly saved.
My praises are for you alone!
Jeremiah 17:14

Jehovah Jireh

The Lord Will Provide

And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others.

2 Corinthians 9:8
