Name / Title	Reference	What It Means for Us
Son of God	Heb 1:2	Jesus is God's own Son — the fullest revelation of who God is.
Heir of All Things	Heb 1:2	Everything in creation belongs to Jesus. He is the rightful ruler of all.
Creator of the Worlds	Heb 1:2	Jesus was present and active at the creation of the universe.
Brightness of God's Glory	Heb 1:3	Jesus radiates and reflects the perfect glory of God the Father.
Express Image of God	Heb 1:3	The Greek word charakter — Jesus is the exact impression of God, like a coin stamped from a die.
Upholder of All Things	Heb 1:3	Jesus sustains the entire created universe by the power of His word.
Purger of Our Sins	Heb 1:3	Jesus cleansed and purified us from sin through His sacrifice on the cross.
Higher Than Angels	Heb 1:4	Jesus holds a name and position that surpasses every angelic being.
Firstborn	Heb 1:6	A title of supreme honor — Jesus holds the highest place of authority.
King Eternal	Heb 1:8	Jesus' kingdom and throne will never end, unlike every earthly kingdom.
Creator & Unchanging Lord	Heb 1:10-12	The heavens and earth will wear out, but Jesus remains the same forever.

Name / Title	Reference	What It Means for Us
Apostle	Heb 3:1	A messenger sent with orders — Jesus came as God's appointed ambassador to humanity.
High Priest	Heb 3:1	Jesus serves as our eternal mediator between God and humanity.
Faithful Builder	Heb 3:3-4	Jesus built a house without walls — His church, made of all who love Him.
Captain of Our Salvation	Heb 2:10	Like a military captain, Jesus leads the way, gives commands, and rewards His followers.
Sanctifier	Heb 2:11	Jesus makes us holy, setting us apart and presenting us clean before God.
Brother	Heb 2:11	Because Jesus took on our human nature, He calls us His brothers and sisters.
Compassionate High Priest	Heb 4:15	Jesus sympathizes with our weaknesses because He experienced them Himself.
Author of Salvation	Heb 5:9	Jesus is the originator and source of eternal salvation for all who trust Him.
Priest After Melchizedek	Heb 5:10	A new, eternal priesthood — unlike the Levitical priests, Jesus serves forever.
Forerunner	Heb 6:20	Jesus went ahead of us into heaven to prepare the way and secure our access.
Anchor of the Soul	Heb 6:19	Our hope in Jesus is a sure and steadfast anchor, even through life's storms.
King of Righteousness	Heb 7:2	Melchizedek's name foreshadowed Jesus, who rules with perfect justice.
King of Peace	Heb 7:2	True peace flows from righteousness — and Jesus is the source of both.
Surety of the Covenant	Heb 7:22	Jesus guarantees the new covenant on our behalf. He is our cosigner.
Ever-Living Intercessor	Heb 7:25	Jesus lives forever and constantly intercedes before God on our behalf.
Holy, Harmless & undefiled	Heb 7:26	Jesus is perfectly pure — free from sin, guile, and defilement of any kind.
Mediator of the New Covenant	Heb 8:6	Jesus stands between us and God, restoring peace and ratifying the covenant with His blood.
Author & Finisher of Our Faith	Heb 12:2	Jesus both begins and completes our faith — from start to finish, it all rests on Him.
The Same Yesterday, Today & Forever	Heb 13:8	Jesus never changes. His love, power, and promises are eternally reliable.
